The Honorable Allen W. Dulles
2723 Q Street, N. W.
Washington 7, D. C.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

The Central Intelligence Agency has reviewed, solely from the viewpoint of national security, your draft of 5 December 1962, "Study on Intelligence." The manuscript is not objectionable from the viewpoint of national security. It is our understanding that the fact that you submitted the manuscript to the CIA and that we checked it in the interest of national security will not be made public.

While the preparation of this manuscript was done by you as a private citizen, the fact that you were the Director of Central Intelligence, could conceivably cause some people to erroneously believe that this is an authoritative account participated in by the Central Intelligence Agency, the CIA desires to go on record in stating that it does not approve of this publication and disclaims any and all reports of cooperation or professional interest in this article.

Stanley J. Grogan
Assistant to the Director
